The bulls, which raged as furiously last evening as if they possessed the eminent domain in a succession of china shops, turned out to be a short-horned lot

Commencing at yesterday's prices the market was fairly steady for the moment, but speedily commenced to yield, and finally wound up in the same sickly con-dition that has characterized it for days back. Lake Shore, which was the head and front of yesterday's rise, opened bravely at 61, but from that point gradually fell off to the closing figure of 59%. Eric, Westn Union and Pacific Mail followed suit, though in a less important way, and the only frumps in the pack were in the hands of the St. Paul fancies, which, offer scoring higher figures at one time, finally closed the game a fraction shead of the opening.

The whole hoist in the market was founded upon intimidation, and feeble bears bore the brunt of the attack. In fact, each day's business is but the record of a petty struggle between the opposing animals, and the situation continues flat enough until Taurus Maximus or Ursus Major, tired of inactivity, makes a dash some of the hopeful thought they had discovered in yesterday's advance, turned out to be little better than scare on the part of ephemeral shorts, who were driven to cover like Renard when "Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart" are on his trail and the scent lies hot. In word, the market is a market of hucksters, and dealings are of the most retail description. Meanwhile, the wealthy and powerful operators keep aloof and content themselves with an occasional swoop upon the quarry (as did yesterday) with a tremendous scattering of feathers and a satisfactory securing of prey. So adolescent bears and bulls low and growl in a youthful Inshion and daily fall victims to their insatinte foes.

Pacific Mail seems to be thoroughly waterlogged, and tunk down to-day to 18, the lowest figure in its history. No amount of pumping, with all bands at the brakes, ems to be of avail to keep the storm-beaten vessel affoat, and it appears to be only a question of time when the unfortunate craft will sink utterly out of Holders of New Jersey Central were not so anxious to keep their grip of their favorite investment, and a goodly lot of long stock appeared for sale, with the result of reducing quotations to par ex dividend. The company deserves the credit at least of making an apparently fair and square exhibit of its condition (albeit a somewhat disappointing one); but stockholders gen-erally will want much stronger reasons before abandon ing faith in one of the best managed roads in the sountry.

Western Union fell off from 68 to 6814, in sympathy with the rest of the market, but did not exhibit any special features. The prohibition obtained in Philadelphia yesterday against a further increase of poles and sires in the public streets may find its imitation in this and other large cities; but so far no effect has been produced upon the stock.

We have noticed the features of individual active stocks and pass others by as dull and unattractive. In a single sentence we have simply to state that the market opened full of hopes and closed with disap-aggregated 140,000 shares, which were distributed among active stocks as follows:—Eric, 20,200; Lake Shore, 55,500; Cleveland and Pittsburg, 400; Northwestern, 800; Rock Island, 600; Pacific Mail, 20,400; St. Paul, 9,600; do. preferred, 10,660; Ohios, 3,700; Western Union, 8,500; Wabash, 100; C., C. and I.
